Reports Indicate That Old-Time Democratic Strength Will Be Polled.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., September 16 .- At Democratic State Headquarters here to-day the statement was made that from every county in the State reports are coming in that are most gratifying as to the united condition of the party, there being every indication that not only will the old-time Democratic strength be polled for the national State and county tickets, but that greater inroads than ever will be made on the Republican strength in both the Eastern and the Western sections. The campaign work as di-rected from State headquarters is getting in full swing, and the progress from now on will be general and more and more strenuous.

William Crudup, aged eighty-four years, died at his home here this morning. A native of Wake County, he went to Mississippi right after the Civil War and engaged in cotton farming, and returned to Raleigh to live two years ago. His wife died soon after his return to this city. He leaves seven children including Josiah leaves seven children including Josial L. Crudup, of Meridan, Miss.; Mrs. E. P. Maynard, Mrs. Bart M. Gatling and Mrs. Van Moore, of Raieigh. The funeral will be held Tuesday from the Miss Caroline Burgwyn Ashe, daugh-ter of Captain Sam T. Ashe, died at the Ashe home here this morning, aged twenty years. The funeral will be from The Church of The Good Shepherd or The Church of the Good shepletto Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. Cap-tain Ashe and family lived in Wil-mington for a number of years where he was editor of the Messenger and later of the Morning Star.

The funeral of Mrs. W. M. Brown was conducted from the residence on West Jones Street this afternoon by Rev. M. M. North, of Edenton Street Methodist Church. She died Sunday afternoon, aged seventy-eight.

afternoon, aged seventy-eight.

The walls of the second floor of the handsome five story Young Men's Christian Association are now well advanced, quite rapid progress being made by the contractors, who promise to have the building ready for occupancy by the early summer of 1913. It will be one of the handsomest and best-appointed association buildings in this part of the country. Raleigh, for
